Knebworth House and Park

Knebworth is a spectacular historic house, home of the Lytton family since 1490. Set in 250 acres of attractive parkland just 28 miles north of London, this Gothic fantasy was transformed from its red brick Tudor origins by Edward Bulwer Lytton in 1843. Venues include the 500-year old House, 16th Century Tithe Barns and ten marquee sites from 12 acres upwards, available for:

- Meetings and conferences
- Dining
- Outdoor activities and fun days
- Festivals and concerts up to 125,000 people
- Celebrations and weddings
- Product launches
